A Brief History of the Tournament: Curt Schafer arranged the first annual tournament as a fundraiser for ASU's School of Architecture in 1983. After Curt passed away in 1986, the event continued in his name. Rich Goewey was a strong supporter of the Rio Salado Architecture Foundation. In 1994, with the passing of Rich, the tournament was changed to the Curt Schafer/Rich Goewey Memorial Golf Tournament. Our world was shocked in 2006 at the sudden passing of Bob Saemisch. Bob had two tours as chair of this tournament and was instrumental to its success. To honor all three the Tournament is now known as The Rio Salado Architecture Foundation Memorial Golf Tournament.

Bob Saemisch

You Are Cordially Invited to participate in the 28th Annual Rio Salado Architecture Foundation golf benefit at the ASU Karsten Golf Course. Come and play golf with friends, clients, associates, consultants and product representatives. The proceeds help the ASU School of Architecture, the arts community, the Rich Goewey Community Projects Fund and the newly established Bob Saemisch Endowment. A few of the special projects that have benefited from the profits of this event are: the Arizona Highways: Land and Landmarks exhibit at the Phoenix Museum of History, The Future City Competition, the Curt Schafer lecture series at ASU and the Mesa Historical Society.
